HEALTHY, wealthy, middle aged lady with large business interests would correspond. View matrimony. Rich or poor, write. Box 104 Elgin, Ill.

REWEED AFTER TWENTY-SIX LONG YEARS.

Tulsa, T. T. June 21.—A marriage license was today issued to Joseph Koon and Lucinda Koon, who were married 26 years ago under the Creek Indian form. The Koons are wealthy white people, and have several children of marriageable age. The record of the Creek marriage was destroyed in a fire some time ago and the old gentleman probably is on his death bed. Hence, that their children may be subjected to no legal entanglements in reference to their property in case of the father's death, the old people decided to marry, after the manner prescribed by Uncle Sam.

Some years ago congress legalized the marriages under the old Indian form and the marriage of the Koons would without doubt stand as a safeguard in any question of law. It is likely that their example in having an official marriage performed will be followed by others in a similar situation.

There is more Cataract in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surface of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

PASSING OF HISTORIC INN.
London, June 21.—The Star and Garter hotel, one of the most historic and celebrated hotels in England, is to be sold at public auction early in August. The hostelry, which crowns the summit of Richmond Hill, and commands a world-famous view, has been the scene of many notable happenings. An inn was first established on the site in 1725. A fire destroyed the older portions of the hotel some thirty-five or forty years ago. The banqueting house of the present building was erected in 1864.

The old Star and Garter was famous among other things, for its theatrical associations. Garrick made the inn a rendezvous for his company and many noted stars, among them Edward Kean, Mrs. Jordan and Mrs. Siddons, made it the regular place to spend their summer holidays. They wrote smart things in its visiting book and held many merry parties there. The visiting book, like so many other relics of historic interest, is now in the possession of an American collector.

Remarkable Rescue
That truth is stranger than fiction, has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me, and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing soon ceased, the bleeding diminished rapidly, and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00 at all drug stores. Trial bottle free.
